Whereas, in the reference 1st cited, the DSP, Anti-Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad, has reported that Sri A.Vamsi Krishna, Junior Assistant, office of the General Manager, District Industries Centre, Musheerabad, Hyderabad, had demanded and accepted bribe amount of Rs.500/- on 08/05/2007 from the complainant. Accordingly, in the reference 3rd cited, the individual was placed under suspension, after which, he was re-instated into service in the reference 5th cited.

2. In the reference 7th cited, Government have decided to initiate departmental action instead of prosecution against the individual and call for the Article of Charges and other relevant documents from the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad. Accordingly, the Commissioner of Industries, Hyderabad, has appointed an enquiry Officer to conduct regular enquiry and furnish his report in the reference 8th cited. After completion of the enquiry, the Inquiry Officer has furnished his report, and, accordingly, in the reference 9th cited, the Commissioner of Industries, Hyderabad, while forwarding the enquiry report, has made request before the authority to take necessary action in the matter.

3. Government after careful examination of the enquiry report, hereby decided to impose a penalty of deduction of (2) two increments without cumulative effect against Sri A.Vamsi Krishna, Junior Assistant O/o General Manager, District Industries Centre, Hyderabad, and also decided to drop further charges.
